Georgie Wins Mechanicsville Handicap, Defeating Thimble in Fast Time

United States Hotel Stakes of $10,000 and Miller Stakes Will Feature Card at the Spa Today; Association to Hold Seven Races Daily

By W. J. Macbeth

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Aug. 4.—The Saratoga Association for the Improvement of the Breed of Horses expects patrons in paying numbers to-morrow afternoon. So far this season the settlement work has had its drawbacks mainly at the tariff of $3.85 a head. While the racing has not panned up to approved standards, attendance has fallen about as low in the exchange as the Russian ruble. But in racing parlance "to-morrow is always another day."

The association to-morrow should have something to show. It is a well-balanced card of merit and class that seems bound to appeal to lovers of the thoroughbred who make a habit of spending their week-ends here while the bangtails are at the Spa. It was evidenced about Broadway this evening, in the early arrivals from New York, Boston, Washington, Baltimore and other Eastern cities, that a fine Saturday attendance might be expected.

Featuring the Saturday program are the United States Hotel stakes and the Miller stakes. The former is a dash of three-quarters of a mile for yearlings. It is a $10,000 classic, more highly prized in turf sentiment than any two-year-old fixture that has been contested in the East this season. It is one of the blue ribbon events that figures in the first award of the championship of the class.

Sixteen in Feature Race

No less than sixteen of the best youngsters in training have been named over night for the United States Hotel stakes. These represent the best that have been produced, not only by the metropolitan circuit, but by Kentucky and Canada as well. It is expected that practically all of these will parade to the post unless the weather takes a turn for the worse. Some few crackjacks, including Bud Lerner, Goshawk, Cherry Eye, Dunlin, Cassett Emper, and others, have been named as missing. Perhaps they were scared off by this afternoon's promise of bad weather. But the sixteen named, at the weights, assures a fine balance, as well as class to the field, which should make for a hot race. The favorites for this particular classic, J. S. Codden's Martingale, with his heavy impost of 150 pounds, is asked to give from fourteen to eighteen pounds to all the others. If he proves equal to the task then his coat must be placed close to Bud Lerner in championship rating.

Only five are named for the Miller, which is a gallop of a mile and three-sixteenths. But here again the issue is the early start of the race. The East and West. E. R. Bradley's three-year-old Bud Mosie is given such a pull in the weights against the Eastern stars as to bring him pretty close up to the others. The Rancocas Stable's Kai-Sang, H. P. Whitney's Bud Mosie, and others are all to carry 125 pounds, conceding fifteen pounds to Bud Mosie and two pounds to Kai-Sang.

Because of a possible bearing it may have on the future of the Whitney Stable, the running of this year's Miller will command added interest. Announcement was made last night, prematurely, by a racing publication that Harry Payne Whitney had sold Whiskaway, a two-time conqueror of the Whiskaway Morvich, for $150,000 to W. A. Clark. Following his double victory over Morvich, and especially that in the $50,000 Latonia special, Whiskaway was generally conceded to be the most prominent candidate for the three-year-old championship of 1922.

Whiskaway Not Sold—Yet

Mr. Whitney to-day denied most emphatically that he had sold Whiskaway. He did admit, however, that the offer had been made for this high class three-year-old colt, and that the offer by mutual agreement of both parties had been refused for several days. Jimmy Rowe, the wizard trainer of the Whitney horses, has never considered Whiskaway the best of his three-year-olds; he rated Olympus ahead of the conqueror of Morvich before the gelding took sick on the eve of the Preakness and Kentucky Derby. But he rated Bunting better than either of the other two.

Bunting is to get his first real test under a flag over the long route in the Miller to-morrow afternoon. He meets in the Rancocas star, Kai-Sang, and at equal weights, the only three-year-old colt shown this season that could possibly be conceded a chance to show above the level of Whiskaway. It may be possible that Mr. Whitney is awaiting the issue of the morrow before definitely deciding upon a sale of Whiskaway. But even should Bunting win and thereby prove his right to contest the crown with the fellow of his stable it seems somewhat preposterous to conceive of Mr. Whitney selling Morvich's conqueror. None of the Whitney family has ever disposed of anything so important as a champion. They buy champions, do not sell them.

Besides to-day's twin features mentioned above will also be contested the Ballston Steeplechase Handicap for three-year-olds, which has called out no less than eight of the timber-toppers. The other three races are for the cheaper horses a sprint of six furlongs for the older classes, and a heavy rain that set in at a half hour before post time for the inaugural day absolutely ruined the card. The opening dash of five and a half furlongs, a mad scramble among nineteen maidens two-year-olds, the only maiden two-year-olds being during the day. There was no time after the heavy

Two Bike Titles on Atlantic City Card

That cycling has a greater hold on the public fancy than even its fond admirers hoped for is indicated by the interest being shown in the coming national championships, which will be run off at Atlantic City on September 16.

For the first time in the history of the sport, a junior as well as a senior championship is being held, and it is a real championship, and the one who finishes first at Atlantic City on September 16 can be christened "champion" without fear of contradiction, for to win the championship, this hardy rider must first qualify in the elimination races now being run off in certain portions of each state in the Union, the ones qualifying being eligible to compete in the state championships, and the winner in each class being sent to Atlantic City.
